Sale of printed copies of Acts and Rules

*Q.—1062. Sri G. RAME GOWDA (Doddaballapur).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) whether printed copies of a number of Acts and Rules are not available for sale ;

(b) the reasons for not making such copies available for sale to the public ?

A.—Sri M. V. RAMA RAO (Minister for Law).—

(a) & (b) In accordance with Standing Orders, 1,000 copies of each of the Acts are printed and kept for sale at the Government Central Book Depot, soon after its publication in the Mysore Gazette. When Rules are published copies are also kept for sale in the Government Central Book Depot, the number of copies being fixed by the Department issuing the Rules.

When copies kept for sale are sold out, the Director of Printing, Stationery and Publications, sends intimation to Government and then action is taken to reprint and keep them for sale.
